Center, Texas -- Today, Rep. Wayne Christian received an endorsement for re-election from Texans for Fiscal Responsibility (TFR), a non-partisan organization that focuses on state and local public policy issues and advocates on behalf of taxpayers.

"As a veteran legislator, Wayne Christian has consistently proven himself to be a strong advocate for Texas conservatives and the interests of his constituents," said the president of Texans for Fiscal Responsibility, Michael Quinn Sullivan. On issue after issue, Wayne Christian has been willing to fight for his East Texas constituents while protecting Texas taxpayers."

In 2011, Rep. Wayne Christian earned the "Taxpayer Champion Award" for his "A+" rating on TFR's Fiscal Responsibility Index, which examines legislators recorded votes during the legislative session.

"I am honored to have the endorsement of Texans for Fiscal Responsibility," said Rep. Wayne Christian upon receiving the announcement. "Michael Quinn Sullivan and the folks at Texans for Fiscal Responsibility are great advocates for the people of Texas and protect taxpayer interests at every step. I am grateful to have their support and for their recognition of my commonsense, conservative policy solutions and opposition to tax increases on Texas families and businesses."
