Maryah's interest in music began by singing "oldies" played on the local radio station as a child. Her love of singing and church hymns lead to a life-long career starting in college with the East Texas Baptist University (ETBU) Concert Choir, to singing across the United States. Martyn Popey's interest in music began as a teenager with rockabilly and 1950's rock 'n' roll. He traveled the UK and Europe regularly, performing at live venues, on TV, and in recording sessions. Martyn plays guitar with the big band "The Sounds Of Swing" and performs solo Jazz guitar in the style of Joe Pass.
