

Strategy for Protecting Caddo Lake

Public Meeting of Caddo Lake Stakeholders
April 26, 2006 1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Site: Karnack Community Center
15593 FM 134 (Intersection of FM 134 and T.J. Taylor Ave.)
Karnack, Texas

Sponsored by
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) and
Northeast Texas Municipal Water District (NETMWD)

Presentations by
Jeffersonian Institute (JI), HDR Engineering, Inc. (HDR) and Caddo Lake Institute (CLI)

Agenda

Welcome and Introductions . . . . . Jerry Lomax, Harrison County
Commissioner, Pct 1

Overview of Initiative to Protect Caddo Lake . . . . . Walt Sears, NETMWD

- Review major points of February 6 meeting and outline next steps
- Update on improvements to the Stakeholder List

Issues of Concern . . . . . Gail Rothe, TCEQ & Gary Endsley, JI

- Framework for setting priorities
- Review Issues of Concern identified in February 6 meeting
- Identify additional issues
- Add to Stakeholder List (if needed) based on new issues identified–

Technical Update on Efforts Already Underway . . . . . Paul Price, HDR & Joe
Trungale, CLI

- Monitoring and Assessment
- Environmental Flows

BREAK

Watershed Protection Plan . . . . . Linda Brookins & Laurie Curra,
TCEQ

- Components and Requirements of a WPP
- Watershed Coordinator
  - Requirements of a Watershed Coordinator
  - Selection of a Watershed Coordinator

Setting Priorities .....
TCEQ

- Prioritizing Issues of Concern
- Forming Work Groups
- Setting Work Group Meeting Dates

Expectations for the Next 6-12 Months .....
TCEQ

- Questions, discussion, wrap-up

Directions to the Karnack Community Center can be found at:

www.mapquest.com and using the intersection of Hwy 134 and T. J. Taylor Ave. in Karnack.